STAR/PAL Youth Center and MYT (Mentoring Youth for Tomorrow)

- Youth from City Heights middle schools attend on a daily/regular basis. Recruitment is ongoing.
- Curriculum includes homework assistance, sports activities, field trips, and monthly crime prevention presentations.
- Mentors from SDSU, UCSD, and SDPD actively tutor youth and help with homework assignments onsite at STAR/PAL.
- The MYT program includes weekly excursions to various locations in San Diego aimed at outdoor enrichment and mentoring (every Wednesday afternoon).

Making Changes

- Meets every Tuesday and Thursday evenings at STAR/PAL from 5 – 7 pm.
- 50 youth have been selected from Teen LEAP, InterACTion, GirL-E, and Man Up programs, as well as from surrounding high schools, to participate in this ongoing program.
- Curriculum: brings youth and volunteer mentors together for a civic engagement based curriculum designed to educate teens on the importance of making correct life decisions and empowering them as leaders in their community.

Teen LEAP

- These 9th grade students at each school are encouraged to be effective leaders within their schools and communities by engaging in new experiences which give them tools to become leaders.
- This program promotes awareness about problems within the community while also encouraging civic involvement to address the problems. The curriculum includes two sessions on financial literacy training provided by U.S. Bank, in addition to juvenile law, street gang prevention, and personal development/public speaking and photojournalism.

InterACTion

- In partnership with the La Jolla Playhouse, InterACTion at Crawford High School is part of the Academy of Law class.
- This crime prevention education program involves creative writing and drama in collaboration with the La Jolla Playhouse. Covered topics include bullying, sexual assault, juvenile law, gangs and graffiti, internet safety, decision making, and self-motivation. Emphasis is to educate students about the law and provide them with the skills necessary to make positive choices when faced with negative

KidSafe Academy

- The program will be initiated in the Linda Vista neighborhood with Linda Vista Elementary, Kit Carson Elementary and Chesterton Elementary. The program will be taught over a three to five-week period, meeting once a week in third grade classes. The primary purpose of the academy is to convey vital information regarding personal safety to youth.

Life Skills Program

- The “Life Skills Program provides skills to youth currently being supervised by the Juvenile Gang Intervention and Intensive Supervision Unit’s (JGIISU) to assist their transition into adulthood.
- 9-week curriculum designed to assist in becoming self-sufficient adults by providing tools to enter the work force, obtain a driver’s license, open a bank account, lead a healthy lifestyle. Offers information regarding college, trade school and military options, tattoo removal, probation record sealing.

MAN UP Diversion Program

- An ongoing program for teenage boys that focuses on self-esteem, juvenile law, basic life skills including the dangers of social media and substance abuse, career prep, healthy relationships, and community awareness. Participants are selected from curfew & truancy sweeps, as well as referrals from local high schools, and a provided diversion option.
- MAN UP meets Thursday evenings from 5:00 to 7:00 pm at the STAR/PAL Youth Center.

WE CAN Diversion Program

- An eight-week program for high school students to focus on life skills, self-esteem, building confidence through public speaking.
- Understanding legal and ethical rights as juveniles.
- Healthy teen relationships, understanding the dangers of social media and substance abuse.
